BREED THEATER.

"The Hobo's Redemption," a Thrilling Story of the Anthracite Coal Mines.

The programme at the Breed today includes one of the most unique pictures of the season, entitled "The Hobo's Redemption," a thrilling story of a mining town in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania. A hobo stealing a ride on one of the coal cars of the section is injured, and except for one of the mine owners would have been killed. The owner places the hobo in the care of a physician, who gives him skilled attention, bringing him to complete health again. He is then given a position in the mines where his real self asserts itself, and he is rapidly promoted until he is appointed assistant to the manager. The manager is injured and confined in a cave-in in the mine, and the hobo, who has been a good friend of the owner's, is called upon to take his place. He does so, and his skill and courage are soon recognized by the owner, who gives him a position in the mines where his real self asserts itself, and he is rapidly promoted until he is appointed assistant to the manager. The manager is injured and confined in a cave-in in the mine, and the hobo, who has been a good friend of the owner's, is called upon to take his place. He does so, and his skill and courage are soon recognized by the owner, who gives him a position in the mines where his real self asserts itself, and he is rapidly promoted until he is appointed assistant to the manager.

The reputation of the Breed for its excellent comedy is fully retained in the screaming story of "Back to the Kitchen." This tells of a domestic who thinks she can play the violin, and despite the fact that her friends secure an engagement at a vaudeville theater, but the numerous cries of "Get the hobo!" compels her to change her mind, and she retires reluctantly to the kitchen.

Mr. Matt Bennett will sing for the concert number today the immensely popular song, a reply to Silver Threads Among the Gold, which is entitled "I Will Love You When the Silver Threads Are Shining Among the Gold."

Mr. Collins will, as usual, feature the novel song, this time singing "Ragging the Baby to Sleep," the latest effort of the rag time song writers.

CHANGE OF PROGRAMME
AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The combination of vaudeville and pictures offered at this popular house for the last half of the week is a most pleasing one. Today is the last chance to see the Animated Weekly, or the moving picture newspaper. There are 14 subjects of timely interest on Wednesday, and each week on Wednesday and Thursday the Auditorium will show the current issue of the Weekly. Not every other week, but every week. Huguel and Taylor, that lively pair, are a versatile and comical singing, dancing and tumbling all in one act.

That Real Comedian, Bert Walker, in a talking and singing act of merit that is away from the ordinary, will offer some hits, clean, clever and new.

The management have secured a most appropriate photoplay feature for Friday and Saturday in the Immortal Shamus O'Brien. This is a direct adaptation of the popular novel, and the leading parts are portrayed by three of the best moving picture artists in the world.

A big surprise is on hand for next week, and one of the biggest all around feature. Miss Evelyn is a young girl, a versatile and comical singing, dancing and tumbling all in one act.

The Life and Adventures of the James Boys in three reels of motion pictures will be the big feature at Polk's today, matinee and night. This review of facts has been staged and photographed on Missouri soil and in many instances in the exact locality where this famous band operated. It cannot be construed as a demonstration of crime, and does not seek to picture James as more or less than the character he actually was. These films are being shown in the principal theaters of our largest cities and are pronounced by authorities to be historically correct and perfectly enacted. Other films will also be shown. Tomorrow night is the second big amateur night, at which Mr. Plant will again appear as official announcer. A fine array of capable performers will try out their respective acts for the approval of the audience, who will act as judges, the prizes being awarded in proportion to the volume of applause accorded each artist.

"MY BABY SUFFERS SO"

Anxious Mothers Worried About Children's Eczema.

Try This Remedy at Our Risk.
Mothers are driven almost frantic with pity and anxiety over the sufferings of children with eczema, or some other torturing rash.

So often are we asked what will give relief that we want every one to know about our new remedy, Saxon Salve, for all sorts of skin diseases, which is performing remarkable cures among children as well as grown persons.

Right at the start this soothing penetrating application, says a mother, "gives relief to the skin, and it sinks into the skin it destroys the germs and exerts its powerful healing influence most thoroughly."

You cannot do better than to try Saxon Salve for eczema, tetter, ringworm or any crusted or scaly skin trouble. We give back your money if Saxon Salve does not satisfy you. Broadway Pharmacy, G. G. Engler, Norwich, Conn.

JEWETT CITY

Burial of Charles S. Meach With Masonic Honors—Rebekah Initiation.

The body of Charles S. Meach, who died Sunday at Williamstown, was brought from his home in Lebanon to Jewett City for burial Wednesday afternoon. Mount Vernon lodge, No. 75, F. and A. M., H. D. Hewett master, took charge of the body at the Lebanon station and conducted the services at the cemetery, where he was laid to rest with Masonic honors. The bearers were Master Masons J. H. Lee, A. R. Young, W. R. Burdick, J. H. Tracy, Arba Browning and E. H. Hiscov. Undertaker A. J. Tinker had charge of the arrangements. The friends were entertained at Dr. S. H. Holmes' after the funeral services.
